Chinle High School
Chinle, Arizona

A Message From Our Principal:

It is with a great deal of pride and faith in the future of Chinle High School, I welcome all who read our 1979-80 Wildcat Yearbook. Chinle High School has a new look and sense of achievement. This is the year of a new beginning.

After years of empty promises, together we have leaped forward to a new sense of awareness. Our school will be a show case for achievement in each area of learning.

Our school campus, with the help of our fine vocational program, is emerging as a show case for our pride. Nothing can stop our commitment. Now is the time.

To our Seniors who have fought to bring about this change we offer thanks and our kindest regards. Your commitment has been strong.

It is my hope we have offered the tool of education to all and wish you good luck in the future. You will always have a home at C.H.S.

1. Principal of Chinle High School for this 1979-80 school year is Mr. David May. Before moving west, he resided in the state of Delaware. While there, he served several positions as a public educator. We welcome you, Mr. May.
2. After seventeen years of sitting behind a teacher's desk, Mr. Phillip Kraus now occupies the Assistant Principal's seat.
3. "I wish my wife would stop yakking - someone might call in sick this morning."

In Memory of:

From the heart of the earth, given to you was life.
Above he dutied himself to strive for your happiness and love.
A promise of sights, sounds, hope, direction, and destiny.
Upon the many, opportunities and responsibilities were promised.
Your attendance was the nature of the world possessing your performance and progress.

In this world, you put effort, sincerity, and fulfillment.
For the wealth and welfare of man you cared.
Dependent in yourself were your deeds.
Only the absence of you two are our need.
Lost and Lonely, we are, an unlocated seed.
For your love, happiness, and life you shared.
Journeying through man's adventures you cared.
With passion of nature appear today memorable.
Non-ambiguous, we here are left anguished.
In your time you abetted us all.
All of us miss your card for man and nature.
You protected his conflicts and constitutions.
Upon many combined comment you reasoned.
Then came the distant future.
God in search of a flower,
and took them above.
From the date of birth, they grew down below him
surrounding and supporting with love,
and leaving us with understanding and love to know.

I wish I were an eagle,
so I could be beautiful;
I wish I were an eagle,
so I could fly high above the clouds;
I wish I were an eagle,
so I could escape the world's troubles;
I wish I were an eagle,
for if I were an eagle I could be free.

The Unforgettables

Activities

Life is a gift.

It can be fun when you have friends,
and together you do things you never do alone.

Life is a flower.

It starts off small,
then gets bigger and bigger until it blossoms.

But, life is also lonely.

You sit by yourself, all alone,
and nothing seems to change.

Life — it is yours.

To do with what you wish.

Oct. 15 Declared Homecoming Week

American Indian Day

A large crowd attended the annual "American Indian Day" event held at the Chinle Community Center on Sept. 21, 1979. This program was hosted by the Title IV program under the organization of CHS student advocate leader, Virginia Etsitty.

This year's guest speaker, Mr. Reginald Begaye from Tohatchi, N.M., spoke on topics such as "Positive Self-Image-Being an American" and "Culture and Indian Values". Along with his advice and Geraldine King's (Drama instructor at NCC), students had sometime to think of themselves as individuals.

On the lighter side, the "Lena and Sheree" show, Tim Clashin, and little Miss Begay (from Many Farms Elementary School), gave the students a performance one would not forget. This event was enjoyed by many and a lot of credit goes to Ms. Etsitty.

It's a good thing to hear, to see, to wonder, to think.
What do I hear?
I hear people talking and laughing.
What do I see?
I see the trees blowing and the cars going by.
What do I wonder?
I wonder why the wind is blowing so softly
it almost puts me to sleep.
What do I think?
I think it's a good thing
to hear,
to see,
and to wonder.
